ORAL INTERVIEW

Applicants who have passed the Physical Agility Test and the Written Exam will be allowed to participate in the oral interview during the month of May 2024 (dates to be selected). Applicants must provide photo identification. A passing score will be a 70 or above.

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

Applicants who pass the physical agility and the written exam will receive a background package via email. Applicants will be required to submit all required forms and documents. Incomplete background packets may be rejected. Every applicant must have an acceptable background as determined during the investigation to continue in the recruitment process. Any questions may be directed to Captain Ricci at (401) 477-5092 or email cricci@cranstonpoliceri.com.

ELIGIBILITY LIST

The candidates who successfully complete the above-mentioned process will be placed on the civil service eligibility list, according to their final score of the oral interview to fill future vacancies. An updated background investigation will also be conducted prior to a conditional offer of employment.

The comprehensive background investigation will consist of an integrity interview, extensive investigation of the candidate's history to include, but not be limited to, education, training, health, employment history, family, neighbors, references, character, credit, military, traits and any other areas as directed by the Chief of Police. The applicant must have an acceptable background as determined during the investigation to maintain their eligibility.

MEDICAL & PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS / DRUG SCREENING

Under Rhode Island State Law, all police candidates must pass a physical exam, including a color blindness test, and a psychological examination prior to being hired for a vacancy. Candidates must successfully pass a medical exam, psychological test and drug screening. In addition, candidates who have not already done so must then attend and pass all phases of the Rhode Island Municipal Police Training Academy. Upon completion of the Rhode Island Municipal Police Training Academy the officer will be a probationary officer for one full year before permanent appointment.
