The North Plainfield Police Department is currently accepting applications for the position of Class II Special Law Enforcement Officer. The department is seeking individuals who currently possess a New Jersey Police Training Commission Certificate as a Class II Officer. Priority shall be given to a recently retired Certified Police Officer who is looking to work one day a week to supplement their retirement pension.

The SLEO II is a part time member of the Police Department that will be required to work our Municipal Court as the primary court officer one day a week on Thursday for approximately 5 to 6 hours and any other time as needed; i.e. parades, town events, etc. While working the SLEO II shall be authorized to exercise full powers and duties similar to those of a permanent, regularly appointed officer. The SLEO II shall also attend all mandatory department in service training throughout the course of the year and he / she will be compensated accordingly. As per NJSA 40A:14-178 you cannot have an existing obligation as a SLEO II. The rate of pay shall be $35.00 per hour.
